Ministry to God through prayer and worship.

Ministry to one another through caring discipleship.

Ministry to others by meeting needs and winning them to Christ.

By the time you get this, Holston Annual Conference will be completed and I will be back home to officially begin my fourth year at Bookwalter UMC. Ken Mahoney and Zach Smith will fill you in on some of the highlights of this gathering which will likely revolve around the proposed purchase of The Connexion in Sevierville and the report on the Way Forward regarding how to best be in ministry to our gay brothers and sisters.

We have certainly seen some ups and downs in my three years together. We have mostly weathered the downs with grace and tried to focus on the positives of the ups. As we move forward, I pray that is exactly what we do...move forward. It is good to sometimes look back (like we will when we celebrate the 50th anniversary of our building dedication next month) but more important to try new things (such as Camp in the Community this month).

While I am not a huge fan of going to Conference (or meetings in general), one thing I enjoy is the reminder of the real connection we have with other churches and people. We are not in this alone. Just this year alone, we are benefiting from Conference support for two of our ministry and outreach efforts. We have scholarship assistance for Camp In The Community as well as "Change For Children" support for our Fresh Start Festival and Job Fair in September. I hope we emerge from our time together this week knowing that while we are not "uniform" we can still be "United" Methodists. Steve Sunday: Grief Support Group meeting 3:00 p.m. - Women's Bible Study, 6:30 p.m.

Camp in The Community (CITC) will start on Monday (June 18-22) We still have spaces available. If you have not registered your child, please see or call Edie Jo. d. Since CITC is not as volunteer intensive as VBS, many are asking what they can do to help. We are serving 2 meals and a snack per day at CITC because it is an all-day event. If you or your group would like to help, you can sponsor meals for a child. It will cost approximately $5.00 per day to feed and hydrate each participant. You can sponsor a child per day, for the week, or several children. If you feel God is leading you to help, please make the check to BUMC and in the memo line "CITC meal sponsor". Thank you for all you do to help the Bookwalter Children's Ministry Team.

Looking ahead: On July 8th, we will be celebrating 50 years since the dedication of our current church building. Among other things, we plan to have a covered dish dinner after worship, take a church wide group photo out front and plant a tree. Spread the word and we hope you can be here.

GET READY! It's Coming. Rummage Sale, July 20th and 21st. The United Methodist Women need elegant junk donated to sell to raise money for their mission projects.

Donations will be accepted after June 22nd.
Thanks for your support.
