Ministry to God through prayer and worship.

Ministry to one another through caring discipleship.

Ministry to others by meeting needs and winning them to Christ.

I compiled a list of quotes to serve as an extension of my sermon Sunday on wisdom.

"When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has opened for us." —Helen Keller

"Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest." —Mark Twain

"You were born an original. Don't die a copy." —John Mason

"The pen that writes your life story must be held in your own hand." —Irene C. Kassorla

"The time is always right to do what is right." —Martin Luther King, Jr.

"Hands that serve are holier than lips that pray." —Sai Baba

"Too many of us are not living our dreams because we are living our fears." —Les Brown

"Love without action is meaningless and action without love is irrelevant." —Deepak Chopra

"When you were born, you cried and the world rejoiced. Live your life so that when you die, the world cries and you rejoice." —Cherokee Expression

"It is not how much we do, but how much love we put in the doing. It is not how much we give, but how much love we put in the giving." —Mother Teresa

"We look forward to the time when the Power of Love will replace the Love of Power. Then will our world know the blessings of Peace." —William E. Gladstone

"We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing." —George Bernard Shaw

"A ship in harbor is safe, but that is not what ships are for." —John A. Shedd Steve
